POWERING PROGRESS™

GATES HAS THE PARTS YOU NEED TO SERVICE HYBRID VEHICLES

The automotive industry is evolving. Automotive manufacturers are now using technology to engineer vehicles with increased fuel efficiency and reduced CO₂ emissions. Vehicle owners are also becoming more conscious of the importance of environmental sustainability and the rising prices of fuel.

In fact, in Australia and New Zealand there are now around 20,000 hybrid vehicles on the road. Best yet, Gates has the parts to help you service these vehicles today! See below for a list of the most common hybrid vehicles.
